KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—Fair; Blue—Rain or Snow; With Black above—Twill warmer; With Black below—Colder; With Black in the center—No change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening.

A new crossing is being put down on the West side of Short street at the intersection of Second.

At Somerset four friends of a scalded railroad engineer had one hundred and forty inches of their skin grafted on to his legs, and the operation promises success.

Mrs. FANNIE SUMMERS of Georgetown brought a $10,000 damage suit against Paris for being thrown from her surrey, and she compromised by the city paying her $350.

MANY prominent citizens of Newport have petitioned Mayor Berry to veto the ordinance allowing the Athletic Association to give glove contests. The matter will come up at next meeting of Council.

THE Legislature has passed a bill providing that nine jurors may render a verdict in all civil cases, but not in criminal cases. If approved by the Governor it will become a law ninety days after the Legislature adjourns—if that event ever comes to pass.

WILLIAM PRICE was rearrested Saturday and requested to pay or give bond for $15 in addition to the bond of $82, which he had furnished. The Mayor, in summing up the cost of the trial Tuesday, made a mistake of this amount in Price's favor. Price refused to do anything relative to the matter and was taken to jail.

EVANGELIST DWIGHT L. MOODY, who was a passenger on the steamer Spry, which was disabled at sea last Sunday, declares it was in answer to prayer that the big ship was saved. After the accident the seven hundred passengers assembled in the saloon and prayed for deliverance. Shortly afterwards the sea became quiet, order was restored, and at night there came the vessel which took them safely into Queenstown harbor.

THE Legislature has passed a bill which fixes the salary of the Governor at $6,500 per year, and gives him the use of the executive mansion unfurnished. All incidental expenses are cut off, and the plumbers and ice dealers will not have such a picnic at the expense of the state as they had in the past. Governor Brown draws a salary of $5,000 a year and has the mansion furnished and incidentals paid by the state. The bill will cut no figure with him, as it will not go into effect until the next Governor is elected.

In Louisville Madame Glover, a fashionable modiste, sued Carrie Martin, a member of the demi-monde, for payment for two dresses made for her some time ago. Upon the trial of the case, Mr. Phelps, Madame Martin's lawyer, made the novel defense that, as the dresses had been made to be used for the purpose of advertising her trade, and as it was an immoral one, payment could not be collected. The court, however, decided for the plaintiff, holding that the latter could not necessarily know to what use the dresses were to be put.

Too Much of a Bitch. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

WHAT WILL CARLISLE GET?

Speculation as to What Part This Distinguished Democrat Will Play.

It is agreed that Senator John G. Carlisle will be handsomely remembered by the new administration. It is not improbable that he will be asked to go into the Cabinet. In that instance there would be a great fight among prominent Kentuckians to succeed him as Senator.

The Louisville Times says: "Everybody in Kentucky will believe that Mr. Carlisle will be at once booked for this or some other important place in the new administration. If he means his resignation and the election of a new Senator from Kentucky—a new Senator to be elected by the present long sitting Legislature, which will surely be in session next March when the new Cabinet is made up. Such a destiny for Mr. Carlisle means the sudden exalting of all the ambitious politicians in the state. His accepting a place in the Cabinet would precipitate a race for his place in the Senate seldom equaled in the state, and in which, even if it were settled by this Legislature, every one of the many candidates would have Kentucky's present Governor to defeat if any one of them were elected. With Carlisle in the Cabinet and Brown, Lindsay, Knott, Clay, McCreary and a possible half dozen others in the race to succeed him, Brown would in all probability represent an element against which all the other candidates would be compelled to combine to defeat him. So that, aside from the turning of the horde of Republicans out of the local Federal offices and the turning of the Democrats in, the election of Cleveland may further mean for Kentucky the exciting task of electing a new Senator, a new Governor, and a complete revolution of the present political conditions."

MAYOR BERRY'S bill to knock out Mayor-elect George H. Ahlerting of Newport and prevent him from appointing the members of the Police Force and Fire Department when he goes into office on the 1st of January, was reached in the Legislature at Frankfort and on motion of Representative R. B. Wilson was recommitted to the Committee on Municipalities. This means that the bill is a dead letter and will not pass, for there is no doubt but what it is unconstitutional. The leading Democrats and Republicans of the city are opposed to it, and the Legislature will certainly take some cognizance of this fact.

In Louisville a damage suit for $70,000 has been brought by Annie Burr against Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Stivers for their inhuman treatment of her. The suit was brought through the Germania Safety Vault and Trust Company, which was qualified as her guardian. The result of the examining trial of Dr. and Mrs. Stivers was a virtual decision that they were guilty of the charges of having cruelly treated the girl. If the suit is won the money can be secured, as the Doctor has property of his own and Mrs. Stivers recently fell heir to $90,000 from her father's estate.

Bear This in Mind. Postmaster General John Wanamaker has issued the following order: "It is hereby ordered that from and after the first day of January, 1893, the fee for registering mail matter shall be 5 cents instead of 10 cents for every separate piece registered." Postmaster Davis suggests to the patrons of his office that they take advantage of the registry system during the holidays at least, particularly in sending out valuable articles, as they become broken in the mail when thrown in the ordinary one, and then articles are lost, with no knowledge of either sender or addressee.

Unsolicited. The following testimonial came to us: Kenyon & Thomas Company, Adams, N. Y.—Gentlemen: For the past two years I have suffered terribly with what doctors call eczema. During this time I have consulted several physicians and used a number of well-known remedies, but could get no relief, until finally I was urged to use your remedies a trial. I cannot say enough in praise of them. At present I am as well as I ever was in my life and owe my sincere thanks to you for Dr. Hale's Household Ointment and Tea. Any one doubting the sincerity of this testimonial will confer a favor by addressing, very truly yours, N. J. McNABE, Leominster, Mass. These remedies are for sale at 25 and 50 cents at Power & Reynolds Drug Store.
